Activity # 801214-01

Celebrate the tenth year of this extraordinary experience, learning about the horse and dog community of Loudoun. This class is designed for the student who is considering a future in agriculture or canine pursuits. Meet a celebrated furrier who shoes important horses, and see an Olympic eventer's horses, talking with her and her staff about their experiences. Learn about obedience training for your dog. Meet miniature and draft horses. Spend the whole week absorbing knowledge about the animals you love. Bring lunch, snacks, and water. End the week with a horseback ride in the Shenandoah Mountains, enjoying a leisurely ride through the hills and meadows with your new friends. Instructor: Beth Lucas.
